THE power of niagara

Founded in 1856 in New York, Niagara University has a proud legacy of educating students in the highest academic tradition, combining intellectual rigor with values-based learning that develops both mind and character.

For more than 40 years in the Greater Toronto Area (GTA), Niagara University has built its reputation through academic excellence and personal connection, establishing itself as a binational institution granting degrees recognized in both Canada and the United States.

Niagara's master's programs feature a comprehensive, applied curriculum that prepares graduates to lead with purpose and impact.

The newly expanded Vaughan Metropolitan Centre campus offers a vibrant learning community where innovation, engagement, and opportunity come together.
